

DR. VISNU LOHSIRIWAT

Dr Visnu patients find him to be friendly and courteous. He is the only surgeon at PPSI specializing in reconstructive surgery after breast cancer, however he is also experienced in regular breast surgery, liposuction and lipofilling. Dr Visnu has gained international experience and in addition to English, he can speak fluent Italian. He also has written several scientific papers and often participate in plastic surgery conferences around the world.

Dr Visnu was added to the PPSI team in 2013 where he currently works on the weekends only. During the week Dr Visnu works in Bangkok, so some clients may find that he is not available for their follow-up visits. He makes himself available on the phone and online to PPSI's other surgeons and staff, so clients are ensured consistent and reliable follow up after their surgery
